

God Saved Us for a Purpose

God's grace doesn't end at salvation it begins there.

When Jesus saved you, He didn't just rescue you from sin; He called you into a life of meaning, purpose, and love. Each of us is part of His divine plan chosen, equipped, and sent to reflect His glory in our world.

This month, as the season turns and gratitude fills our hearts, we'll explore how God's saving power gives our lives direction. You were not saved by accident. God designed you with intention to serve, to love, to bring light, and to reveal His goodness wherever you go.

May this month's readings draw you closer to your Savior and awaken a deeper sense of why He placed you here for His glory, and for such a time as this.
