A Word from Our Pastor.

Thank you so much for downloading When you need to feel accepted by God.

There are times in life when we may wonder if God truly accepts us.

We may look at our mistakes, our weaknesses, or the things we wish we could change, and wonder if we are good enough for God.

But God's acceptance is not based on our perfection. It is rooted in His love and in what He has done for us through Jesus Christ.

7 Bible Promises: When You Need to Feel Accepted by God was created to remind you of this beautiful truth you are seen, you are loved, and you are welcomed by God.

My prayer is that these seven Bible promises will encourage your heart, strengthen your faith, and remind you that your worth is not determined by your past, your failures, or what other people may think about you.

Thank you for being part of this journey with us.

With love and prayers,
Pastor Dan

When you need to feel accepted by God

All those the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me
I will never drive away.

John 6:37 — NIV

You Are Welcomed by God

You don't have to become perfect before you come to God.

Jesus welcomes you just as you are.

Your past does not make you unworthy of His presence.

When you come to Him, you will not be rejected or pushed away.

You can come with your questions, your failures, and your fears.

His invitation is open, and His arms are always ready to receive you.

Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God

John 1:12 — NIV

You Are God's Child

Your relationship with God is not based on what you have achieved.

Through faith in Jesus, you are welcomed into God's family.

You are not simply someone looking for a place to belong.

You have been given a new identity as a child of God.

Let that truth replace the voices that tell you that you are not enough.

You belong to Him.

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ
Jesus,

Romans 8:1 — NIV

You Are Not Condemned

Sometimes our greatest critic can be ourselves.

We remember our mistakes and wonder if God still wants us.

But in Christ, condemnation does not have the final word.

God's grace is greater than the things you wish you could change.

You can learn from your past without allowing it to define your future.

In Christ, you can move forward with freedom and hope.

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:8 — NIV

God Loves You Deeply

God did not wait until we had everything together before He loved us.

His love was shown to us while we were still imperfect.

The cross is a powerful reminder of how far His love reaches.

You do not have to earn the love that God has already shown you.

When you feel unworthy, look again at what Jesus has done.

The cross reminds you that you are deeply loved.

For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Ephesians 2:10 — NIV

You Are God's Workmanship

You are not an accident or a forgotten life.

God created you with purpose and knows you better than anyone else does.

There may be things about yourself that you struggle to accept.

But God sees beyond your weaknesses and sees the person He created you to be.

Your value is not determined by comparison with someone else.

You are God's workmanship, created with purpose.

God

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:10 — NIV

God Is With You

Feeling accepted also means knowing that you are not alone.

There may be seasons when God feels distant, but His presence has not disappeared.

He promises to strengthen and help His people.

When you feel forgotten, remember that God has not forgotten you.

You can face today knowing that His presence goes with you.

You are never walking through life alone.

God

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

1 John 3:1 — NIV

You Are Loved as God's Child

Take a moment and let those words sink into your heart.

God doesn't simply tolerate you; Scripture speaks of His great love for His children.

You don't have to spend your life trying to prove that you are worthy of love.

Your identity begins with knowing whose you are.

When the world makes you feel unseen or unwanted, remember your Father in heaven.

You are loved, you are known, and you belong to God.

A Final Word of Encouragement

There may be days when you don't feel accepted.

You may feel like you have failed too many times, made too many mistakes, or somehow fallen short of what God expects from you.

But feelings can change. God's Word remains true.

When you don't know what to believe about yourself, go back to what God says.

You are welcomed.

You are forgiven.

You are loved.

You are God's child.

You have purpose.

You are not alone.

And in Christ, you belong.

May these seven promises remind you that God's love is not something you have to earn.

Come to Him.

Trust Him.

Rest in His love.

And remember that your acceptance before God is found not in being perfect, but in Jesus Christ.
